DEMOS WIN THREE CONTESTED RACES

Faith Chapel May Expand Facility

BY SAM ALLRED

The Faith Student Chapel adjacent West Texas State University, may soon invest up to $400,000 in emphasizing Christian ministry on the layman's level.

The non-denominational chapter of the Apostolic Faith Outreach, Inc., is studying plans for construction of separate classrooms and residence halls, to be used for the teaching of WTSU accredited Bible classes.

The Rev. Marcus Adair, director, said a group has been formed to do a feasibility study of three proposed construction projects, with the report due to be concluded December 15.

One project would involve construction of separate classrooms, at a projected cost of $116,000. The second plan calls for separate classrooms and a residence hall for 60 students, at a cost of $252,000. The final area of study would feature the classrooms and a residence hall for 120 students, at a projected cost of $480,000.

Rev. Adair said all three plans being considered would feature office spaces and a living area for a resident director. The target construction date for whichever plan is chosen is March 1.

The minister said that Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WTSU, spoke to a group of interested persons Friday in the Gold Room of the East Cafeteria on campus and "challenged the group to join other Christian ministries sharing Christian ideals with ever increasing numbers of West Texas State students."

Rev. Adair said the group included the board of trustees of the Apostolic Faith Outreach, Inc., the advisory board, committee heads of various Outreach phases of the student center and other interested persons.

Dr. Cornette complimented the group for their work and welcomed Rev. Adair to present Bible classes for accreditation on campus, according to the minister.

Although the student center stresses the layman's role in Christian endeavors, Rev. Adair said he was hopeful that within five years the physical plant could be enlarged to offer a degree plan

FFA Sets Banquet Dec. 3

Amarillo District FFA banquet will be held in Canyon Junior High School Cafeteria Dec. 3, according to Jim Walker, Canyon vocational agriculture instructor.

Walker said about 400 are expected for the banquet from over a six-county area.

Several awards will be made on that occasion, he reported.

Drama Group Needs Prop

Seen a wheel of chance lately?

The Canyon High School Drama department is in need of one for their production "The Silver Whistle."

Kim Durden, prop chairman, stated that the Lion's Club had one at one time, but loaned it to a group that has not returned it. If it can be found the problem will be solved.

The comedy, directed by Mrs. Dick Dambold, will play on the CHS stage November 19 and 21.

David Self, representative of Datamedia Corporation, is shown here assisting County Clerk LeRoy Hutton in preparing the computers for counting the ballots in the Tuesday election.

All You Can Eat

Umbarger Feast

BY CAROL CRAIN

There'll be all you can eat and more at the 18th annual Umbarger Sausage Festival Sunday from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the town's Parish Hall.

The menu includes home-made sausage and kraut, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, celery and carrot sticks, homemade bread, butter, and cherry pie. Cost of the meal is $2 for adults and $1 for children six to twelve with those under six free.

The annual event also includes a Country Store with all kinds of homemade jellies, jams, canned goods, cinnamon rolls, cakes, pies, brownies, cookies, and breads.

The Umbarger women work all year long on the bazaar items, such as stuffed animals, pillow cases, baby quilts, and other handmade gifts. The wares will sell from 50 cents to $5 at the festival.

"You've got to get here early if you want to buy things at the country store and bazaar," one of the workers pointed out.

"We should have plenty of homemade bread this year, though," publicity chairman, Bernard Hartman stated. "We bought 300 to 400 pounds of flour for the women."

A fish pond will open for

Broncos Invade Canyon Saturday

Western Michigan's big Broncos will tackle West Texas State University's Buffaloes, minus ace running back Olan Thompson, at 2 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl.

Thompson was injured Saturday night in Turnpike Stadium against the University of Texas at Arlington. The 185-pound Lockhart senior injured a knee.

His left knee was operated on Monday afternoon and the results were successful, but he will still be lost for the final three games of the year.

The Broncos are carrying a 5-3 record into Saturday's game to match the Buffs' 5-2 standard. Last week the Broncos ripped Ohio University, 52-23.

Western Michigan's Broncos are physically the largest team to play the Buffs this season. Leading the backfield play is 212-pound

Eagles To Face Rangers Friday

The Canyon Eagles, smarting from a 31-7 loss to the Dumas Demons, take on the Perryton Rangers Friday night in the third conference game of the season.

Game time is 7:30 o'clock in Buffalo Bowl.

In comparative scores that both teams have met the Rangers and Eagles are about even.

The Rangers beat Caprock at whose hands the Eagles were defeated. They lost to Pampa who also beat Canyon and lost to Levelland, beaten by Canyon.

In district play the Rangers lost to Levelland 22-20 and slaughtered Tulia 61-0. They stand 1-1 in district as do the Eagles.

Canyon hasn't beaten Perryton in football since going into AAA.

Perryton is probably the largest and strongest team Canyon will meet this year.

Quarterback Danny McWorter is an average passer. His favorite receiver is Steve Gobin, a split end. The Rangers run from a slot I and are mostly a running team.

David Flowers, 225-pound fullback, is a strong hard runner and is excellent on the inside. The Rangers also are a strong defensive team.

Canyon will be without the services of Jeff Gunter, safety man, for the rest of the season. Gunter was injured in the Dumas game and will undergo surgery, yet to be scheduled.

Loss of Gunter was a blow to Coach Dunny Goode's team since Gunter was an excellent defensive player.

In the game against Du-

Talk Protested

Julian Bond's upcoming visit to the West Texas State University campus stirred up protest five days before his appearance as a speaker at the university Activities Center.

The Canyon News received a leaflet through the mail Monday morning urging protest of the Bond appearance Apparently the leaflet was mailed to a number of people.

The leaflet, unsigned, was postmarked in Amarillo.

"Citizens Protest Canyon Appearance of Julian Bond — Idol of the Left," the leaflet admonished. The leaflet gives the time and date of the Bond speech and urged those who received it to call, write or wire the West Texas State University board of regents.

Below this admonition appeared the names and addresses of the nine board members including the telephone number of the chairman, Cloyce K. Box of Frisco.

Those who received the leaflet were told that more information is available by writing SOS, Save Our Schools, at Post Office Box 3656 in Amarillo.

JULIAN BOND

The leaflet also contains alleged facts about Bond apparently excerpted from The Christian Crusade, an extremely conservative publination.

Bond is scheduled to speak on "The New Coalition" at 7:30 next Friday evening. The Negro legislator from Georgia is a controversial civil rights leader.

At 30 years of age, Bond is a leader in the Democratic Party. He was elected to the Georgia legislature in 1965 as the first Negro to win a seat there since 1908. He was denied the post until the Supreme Court of the US forced his seating in 1967.

Bond was catapulted to national prominence at the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago when his name was placed in nomination to represent his party as a candidate for vice president.

He withdrew his name because at the time he was 7 years younger than the legal age to serve in the office as provided under the Constitution.

He was founder of the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights and helped found the Students Non-Violen Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC). Both are civil rights groups.

COVERING FUMBLES

I have started a list of "advantages of being older"; but my page is still blank. Psychology has robbed me of some pleasures.

Toy Bowl Is Sunday

Canyon Kids Inc., Eagles football team will play Olson Park of Amarillo at Bonham Junior High School in Amarillo at 1:30 o'clock Sunday in the Toy Bowl.

All players and fans must bring one usable toy that can be repaired. The Canyon team is coached by Dr. A. J. Luquette.

All Kids Inc., youngsters will meet at 6:30 p.m. November 16 in Canyon Community Center for awards and refreshments.

CHS Band Top Rated

The Canyon High School Band won a Number I rating in the Region I 3-A competition for a superior performance in Buffalo Bowl.

The band received a number one rating from all three UIL judges.

The CHS band performed K. L. King's "Trombone King," Leroy Anderson's "Serenata"; C. E. Duble's "Bravura"; and Kenneth Alford's "Eagle Squadron."

Band director, J. W. King, stated that he knew that the band students were capable of such a fine performance and was pleased with their effort.

The bands are rated according to skill and perfection rather than against other bands in their division. In Region I the 3-A bands received the following ratings: Dumas I, Perryton I, and Tulia II.

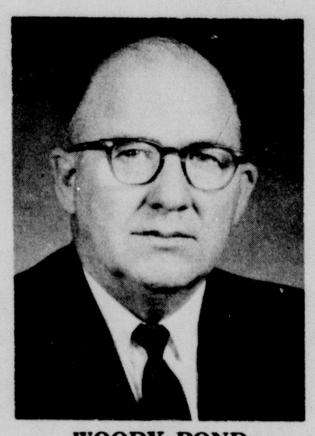
Woody Pond Judge By Thin Majority

Democrats swept three of four contested county races in balloting Tuesday.

Democrat Woody Pond won the crucial post of county judge over Joseph "Buddy" Schley by a paper thin margin.

George Dowlen, Democratic incumbent, defeated challenger Rhett Plank for district attorney and incumbent county treasurer Ruth Hill, a Democrat, withstood the efforts of Republican Margaret Trautmann to defeat her for that office.

The only Republican victory was won by John Fulgenzi who defeated Democrat Oth Miller for county commissioner, Precinct 2.



WOODY POND

Republican Bill Butler ran unopposed for re-election as commissioner from Precinct 4.

The race for county judge probably was the most hotly contested in the county this year. Carroll Brown, the incumbent, decided to switch from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party and run for district judge.

This left Schley and Pond in the field. Pond conducted a campaign of hand shaking relying on previous experience during two terms as Roberts County judge.

Schley, an attorney and former Amarillo corporation court judge, hammered at the need for a lawyer in the office.

When the votes were counted Pond had won, 7,021 to 6,882 — a margin of only 139 votes.

Pond rolled up a lead in Canyon, rural and some small Amarillo precincts that Schley could not overcome even with victories in the big and predominantly Republican boxes in South Amarillo.

Pond carried 14 precincts, some of them by lopisded margins.

At Jowell Pond got all but one of the 53 votes cast there. Schley's biggest margin was at Ridgecrest School where he got 1,051 votes to 505 for Pond.

Dowlen nudged Plank by about 1,000 votes. Dowlen received 7,388 as compared to 6,316 for his opponent. Ruth Hill received 7,653 votes for county treasurer as compared to 6,030 for Margaret Trautman..

Up in South Amarillo in Commissioner Precinct 2 John Fulgenzi rolled up 2,318 votes as compared to 1,962 for Oth Miller.

There was keen local interest in the race between Don Dean and Carroll Brown for the post of 181st District Court judge.

Dean was appointed to the office by Governor Preston Smith and Brown, Randall County judge, switched parties to run against Dean on the Republican ticket. The district includes Potter and Randall Counties.

Here in Randall Dean swept to an easy 3 to 1 victory over Brown and coasted to a win in the district with about the same majority in Potter.

The county went to Democrat Max Sherman, Amarillo, in his bid for the 31st state Senate seat against Malouf "Oofie" Abraham of Canadian. Sherman recceived 7,201 votes as compared to 6,879 for Abraham.

Republican Paul Eggers carried Randall County over incumbent Governor Preston Smith by a margin of 8,006 to 6,072. However, the governor carried all the Canyon boxes.

Republican George Bush carried the county over

Better Teletypes For Area Police

Automatic teletype machines will be put in the Sheriff's Office within the next three months, Don Black, Southwestern Bell representative from Lubbock, told Canyon and Amarillo officers in a meeting here Monday.

Also at the meeting was Ernie Clark, executive director of the Panhandle Regional Planning commission.

With the new machines messages will be direct to the Department of Public Safety in Austin instead of being routed through other stations.

A message to another station in the communications loop will go into Austin but will be received by the other station within a matter of seconds, Black said.

Messages will be routed by a computer at the DPS which will scan the loop every two minutes.

Messages will be cut in perforated tape and may be sent out at 100 words per minute.

Black said the machines will be installed within the next three months and will cost about $190 a month. Clark explained that this rental will be funded 60 percent by federal money and 40 percent locally.

He said the federal funding is under the Omnibus Crime Control Act.

Black told the group that messages sent for identification of subjects will get an answer either from the criminal records division or the motor vehicle division within 10 minutes.

He said this eventually would be cut to 45 seconds.

If the information sought is not available at the DPS the message will be relayed on to the National Crime Information Center in Washington.

Some 18 sheriff's offices and police departments in the area are expected to par-

4-H Banquet Is Saturday Night

The annual 4-H Achievement and Awards banquet will be held Saturday night at the Rex Reeves Elementary School.

The evening's program will include the invocation by Connie Brazzil, Randell 4-H club member; a welcome by Randy Dugan of the Cleta 4-H club; the 4-H pledge and motto by Stan Cook of the T-Anchor club; and introduction of special guests by Alan Dugan, of the Wagon Wheel 4-H.

Terry Reynolds of the Cleta 4-H will introduce the officers of each club, club leaders, officers of the junior leaders organization, and the banquet committees.

Joe Brown of the KGNC Farm and Ranch Department will be the guest speaker.

The junior leaders will perform a skit at the dinner.

Members of the decorations committee are chairman, Mrs. Anton Hol-

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

I ran a graphic account of the Rev. Lester Kinsolving's talk at the West Texas State University Activities Center because I thought the people of Canyon and the Panhandle ought to know about his speech.

The people of this area, in the final analysis, are responsible for the operation of their university and I think it is important that they know what goes on there.

The biggest fault I find with the speaking fare at West Texas State is that it is loaded with liberals. One of the people who brought the Rev. Kinsolving to the campus explained to me that the purpose of bringing speakers is to stimulate thought.

I'll buy this if both sides are presented. The Rev. Kinsolving's talk might have stimulated thought indeed if we could have heard an opposing view within days or even the following week.

So far we haven't heard much but the liberal point of view. The first speaker to be brought here by the WTSU Student Activity Council was Richard Vasquez, a liberal Chicano novelist and columnist.

Last week the speaker was the Rev. Kinsolving, who is by his own admission personna non grata with much of the clergy of his own church. Kinsolving, who was supposed to be here to stimulate thought heaped scorn on those whose thought does not coincide with his own.

Upcoming this week we have Julian Bond, a Negro legislator from Georgia, who has been active in civil rights groups including the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights and the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee, both of which he helped found.

I have no desire to stop any of these people from speaking. I just think that if the purpose for bringing them here is thought stimulation then both sides should be heard.

Presently a campus group is forming to bring some conservative speakers to the campus. If the thing gets off the ground then the people of Canyon and Amarillo are going to have to support it financially.

After all, it takes money to sponsor such programs.

Mail service is getting increasingly worse. It is not the fault of local people.

I think the fault lies in the fact that the post office is now hiring folks who can't do the work and if they happen to be members of minority groups can't be fired.

I talked recently to a man who works for the Post Office Department. He told me of a fellow worker, a member of a minority race, who comes to work when he wants to and stays home when he feels like it. The man in charge is afraid to fire him.

As long as this situation persists, we can expect the mail service to worsen.

I had lunch with Gary Fletcher one day this week. Gary is a young farmer who is getting a degree in finance at WTSU. He is the son of Commissioner Jim Fletcher.

Gary and his granddad operate a pretty good sized farm and ranch, about 10 sections. Gary says it is a medium sized operation.

He thinks farming eventually will become a corporate undertaking because of the expense involved. He said this is going on in the Midwest where farmers are pooling their operations into corporate ventures in order to farm most efficiently and to be able to use the best possible equipment.

Gary agrees with Dr. Charles Smallwood that rural life is the good life. He said that growing up in the country gave him advantages that city friends never had.

That's why he chose farming and ranching for himself and his young family.

"No doubt the radical left will be in print in the next few days saying the President attacked the mob," I predicted in an editorial Sunday.

It wasn't quite that bad but almost.

Political opponents are accusing the President and vice president of organizing the attack on the President's motorcade for political purposes in order to gain public sympathy.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

The wealth of America is — and always has been — a free people. The Master Teacher said, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

The glories of ancient Rome were eclipsed by a thousand years of dark ages (from which the Italians have never fully emerged), because the rulers denied their people access to the truth.

The Committee on Internal Security was commissioned by Congress to ascertain the identity and funding of campus lecturers at colleges and universities in the U.S. Chairman Richard H. Ichord (D-Mo.) submitted the findings to Congress. The American Civil Liberties Union filed suit before U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell to prevent the report being printed in the Congressional Record.

Gesell, in finding for the ACLU, declared that the report was issued "solely for the sake of exposure or intimidation" of the 65 militant, radical, or communist-oriented speakers involved.

Keven T. Maroney, a Justice Department lawyer representing the Committee, said the report presented indisputable proof that the campus speaking circuit was a significant source of financial support for the promoters of chaos on campuses. And Maroney contended that the balance of powers between Congress and the courts gave Gesell no authority to stop publication of the report, which was a normal part of the legislative process.

If this suppression of truth is allowed to stand (Gesell did not deny the validity of the report) in this landmark confrontation between the courts and Congress, a vital part of our republic will be destroyed. Ichord said he would appeal Gesell's order.

According to the latest Gallup Poll, the majority of American adults consider themselves conservative, and an increasing number of young people are joining the conservative ranks. Why then must our tax-supported campuses be flooded with radical liberal speakers? Anywhere a panel of speakers is presented, there are usualy 7 liberals to 1 conservative.

If the liberals really cherish free speech, why do they not give conservatives equal opportunity to speak? And why do they shout down everyone who opposes their views?

Several college administrators have said they feared to restrict the radical speakers for fear their followers burn down the institutions. Does that sound logical in view of the fact that disruptions have consistently followed in the wake of radical speakers?

Student apathy is constantly deplored by college leaders. Catering to the radical fringe is not likely to inspire enthusiasm in the student body.

Catering to the radical fringe is not confined to the college campus, however. The ultra liberal Episcopal Lester Kinsolving writes a religious column which appears in 228 newspapers in 45 states and 14 foreign countries. This is in spite of the fact that he is in disfavor with his own church, and that he rejects the authority

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Did you have to repeat the whole sordid speech by the Rev. (?) Lester Kinsolving which he delivered at the Activities Center of WTSU last Tuesday?

What help can this be in these troubled times of permissiveness?

Our nation is only as strong as our home and family life is. And when this is torn asunder by such wholesale lives of sin and abuse, how can one who practices these abuses even hope to settle down and rear a family of God-fearing, God-loving children and citizens who will work for the good of our nation as well.

I am very sorry to see some one in the position you occupy fall in with such a terrible attitude.

I pray that God will put down such people as these who advocate his teaching.

And may those who oppose let themselves be heard loud and clear.

I am very sincere about this.

Mrs. Frank J. Grabber
Rt. 1, Box 224
Canyon, Texas 79015

(I hope you will see fit to print my letter.)

(Editor's Note: Your letter implies that I endorse the Rev. Lester Kinsolving. Nothing could be further from the truth. Rev. Kinsolving spoke at a public institution which you and I as citizens and taxpayers help support. It is my duty to tell you as a subscriber to my newspaper what goes on in that institution. How would you be able to counteract things happening there with which you do not agree if you did not know about them? TM) of the Bible, which Americans respect — even if they do not obey.

Kinsolving rejects the 7th Commandment, and contends that the doctrine of the virgin birth degrades sex, which he seems to find all important. According to the Scriptures, sex had nothing to do with the virgin birth. Christ had to be born of a virgin to escape original sin. Eve was beguiled into disobeying God; Adam did it deliberately. Therefore, it was through the father that children inherited sinful natures. If Jesus had been born of an earthly father, He would have been a sinner. If He had not kept the law perfectly, He could not have redeemed mankind.

The radical liberals seem determined to destroy truth. Let us not relax in the knowledge that "truth, crushed to earth, shall rise again." Let us be prepared to defend truth wherever it is attacked lest we lose the rest of our freedoms.

Man, Medicine, Environment Topic For AAUW Program

The American Association of University Women met in the Clay Cooper home Saturday and heard Mrs. James Davis speak on "Man, Medicine, and Environment."

The speech topic mainly concerned the effect of the environment on man's health. Mrs. Davis indicated that there is no immediate health danger for man in the United States.

"Noise," she stated, "when bombarded from all sides can impair hearing."

She also pointed out that pesticides, which "are used to destroy that which we do not like, can prove harmful to man." She explained, however, that other methods are being used to control insects, such as means of preventing reproduction.

In her discussion of air pollution, Mrs. Davis stated that "air pollution does invite disease and hurt those with respiratory diseases. She noted that the cost of air pollution is great when one considers the man hours lost, and the money spent on rectifying a polluted situation.

Air pollution is not too serious in this area of the country. . . and we should strive to keep it that way.

During the business session of the meeting a list giving the phosphate content in various detergents was passed out. The group also voted to send a representative to the Canyon Recreation Council.

The craft group took orders for gift and decor items and AAUW Casserole cookbooks were sold.

The refreshment table was decorated with a Halloween motif and cake and punch were served by hostess, Mrs. Clay Cooper and co-hostesses Mrs. Edward Schmutzer, Mrs. Cristler Crain, Miss Ada V. Clark, Mrs. Kirk Kite.

Methodists To Hear Missionary To Japan

The Rev. William M. Elder, a United Methodist Missionary in Japan for 22 years, will speak at the First United Methodist Church of Canyon Sunday morning at 8:45 a.m. and 10:50 a.m.

The Rev. Elder, a native of Caldwell, Arkansas, went to Japan as a special-term missionary in 1948 where he taught at Chinzei Gakuin school in Isahaya. In 1949 he married another special-term missionary, Miss Irene Nix in Tokyo, Japan. Mrs. Elder has done missionary work at the San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo.

Rev. Elder also has served in general evangelism, youth work and as a pastor in Japan and Okinawa. Rev. Elder pointed out that pastoral work in Japan is very much like that in the United States. There are weddings, funerals, visiting the sick, helping those with special problems, and the usual activities with youth groups and church school.

The Rev. and Mrs. Elder are presently stationed at Chiba, Japan. The Rev. Elder's present assignment is to work half-time cooperating with the pastors of the churches in Chiba City in an effort to coordinate their programs of urban evangelism. The other half of his time is assigned to the Japan Institute of Christian Education.

He is a graduate of Hendrix College, Arkansas and Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

REV. WILLIAM ELDER

Son Born To Phelans October 17

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Phelan announce the birth of a son, Terry Duane, on October 17.

The infant weighed 5 lbs. 14 oz. at birth and was 20½ inches long.

The couple have four other children, Deborah Lynn, age 7; Rebecca Jean, age 5; Michael Joe, age 4; and Christopher Glen, age 1.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Buttrill of Canyon. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Phelan of Altamont, Illinois.

The Canyon Study Club's Community Projects Committee has started their drive for a colored television for the High Plains Children's Home. The study club needs a total of $400 to reach their goal. Mrs. Bill Pratt and Mrs. Fred Begert are co-chairmen of the drive. Persons wishing to contribute to the fund may leave their donation with Don Max Vars at the First National Bank.

Barlow Recital In FAB Nov. 11

D. C. Barlow will present a saxophone recital Wednesday, November 11 at 4:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Miss Cynthia Jo Lee

Miss Lee To Wed Waters

Mr. and Mrs. Bill R. Lee announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Cynthia Jo, to Winfred Keith Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Waters of Belton.

The marriage will be solemnized December 13 at the First Baptist Church of Belton.

The bride-elect is a 1967 graduate of Canyon High School and is a former student at West Texas State University and Stephen F. Austin State University.

The prospective groom is a 1967 graduate of Belton High School. He also attended Stephen F. Austin State University.

News Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Duaine Morphis of Dallas announce the arrival of a son, Franklin Duaine, on November 1.

The infant weighed 10 lbs. 3 oz. at birth.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Allen of Dallas, formerly of Canyon.

The Morphises live at 2456-A Highland Drive in Dallas.

Sims-Jolly Wed In Faith Chapel

Sharon LaRue Sims of Canyon became the bride of Gilbert Mark Jolly Sunday afternoon, November 1, at Faith Chapel.

The Rev. J. Frank Peery solemnized the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Sims of Canyon. The groom is the son of Mrs. Nadeen Jolly of Canyon and Mr. M. A. Jolly of Panhandle.

Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Kirby Sunderman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length formal gown of Peau de Soie and Alencon lace designed with a cowl neckline. The gown was fashioned in an A-line silhouette and had long tapered sleeves of Alencon lace. A chapel length train accented with tiny covered buttons and lace appliques was attached at the shoulders.

The veil of imported illusion cascaded from a coif of organdy and lace to the bride's shoulders. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses.

The altar was decorated with two large baskets of yellow gladiolas and white mums accented with yellow bows. In the background was a fourteen branch candelabra entwined with greenery and decorated with a yellow bow. A white kneeling rail was used at the altar.

Emily Jeanett Thomas of Canyon, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Charles Michael Smith of Panhandle, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmatron.

Both attendants wore street length dresses of avocado green with empire waistline and full organdy sleeves. The dresses were trimmed with white and avocado embroidery.

The attendants also wore a green velvet bow headpiece with streamers trimmed in the embroidery matching their dresses. Each carried a long stemmed yellow rose.

Henry Gill of Canyon served as best man. Mr. James Cranfill of Dallas, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was groomsman.

Miss Tracy Dawn Lewis, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and ringbearer was Vance Cranfill, nephew of the bridegroom. Kyle Cole Sims, brother of the bride, served as candlelighter.

Ushering were Charles Michael Smith of Panhandle and Harry Douglas Sims, brother of the bride, of Canyon.

Preceding the ceremony the bride presented her mother with a yellow rose and following the ceremony, she presented a rose to the groom's mother.

A reception was held in the bride's parents' home after the wedding. The reception table was covered with an avocado green tablecloth with matching net. Yellow velvet bows decorated the front of the table.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. Kay Cranfield, Mrs. Bettye Beck and Mrs. Theresa Lewis. Tammie and Cindy Beck registered the guests.

The bride traveled in a red knit dress with navy and white accessories.

The bride graduated from Canyon High School and attended West Texas State University where she served as president of the Lambda Chi Alpha Crescents.

The groom graduated from Canyon High School and attended West Texas State University where he was active in ROTC. Mr. Jolly is employed by the Mobil Oil and Gas Corporation.

Special guests attending the ceremony included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. J. Cole, Sr. of Canyon and the bride's grandfather, Mr. D. G. Sims of Mobeetie.

A rehearsal dinner honoring the couple was held on Saturday evening preceding the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to El Paso, Dallas, and Austin, the couple will be at home at 138 Siesta Lane in Canyon.

Mrs. Gilbert Mark Jolly

Welcome Wagon Dinner Tonight

The Welcome Wagon Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in the Girl Scout House for a covered dish supper for members and their husbands.

Each member is asked to bring a covered dish.

Stanley Taft, formerly with the Peace Corps in Peru, will bring the program. Taft is presently a Wild Life biologist with the Texas Park and Wild Life Department.

Christmas Mail Pointers

Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland this week listed six tips on how residents of Canyon can help meet tight Christmas budgets this year by careful mailing of cards and parcels.

For the most efficient mailing, Mr. Moreland suggested the following steps:

1. For servicemen overseas--"SAM" (Space Availalbe Mail) Christmas parcels can be sent until November 29 for only the small domestic parcel post charge involved from Canyon to East or West Coast points of embarcation for military mail. Parcels up to 5 pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth are accepted at this low rate.

2. Larger parcels (up to 30 pounds with the same length and girth limitations) can be sent as "PAL" (Parcel Airlift) mail, provided they are mailed by November 27. The charge is only $1 per parcel, plus the regular domestic parcel post postage —much less than charges that would apply later if straight airmail service must be provided.

3. For all packaging, invest in good quality, sturdy wrapping materials. This small investment can help insure undamaged delivery of valuable gifts and prevent delays which might result if rewrapping were required in transit.

4. Insure parcels realistically to cover full value but do not overinsure. A $10 gift, for example, can bring only $10 compensation, if lost, even if "insured" for $100.

5. Get plenty of stamps on your first trip to the post office to avoid the time and expense of additional trips. Rural Carriers can not stamp individual letters during the Christmas period.

6. Use ZIP Codes as a tool for economy in mailing. When it is used consistently on parcels and cards, ZIP Code helps prevent errors in delivery and expedites handling. If only a few Christmas cards go astray, an investment of several dollars may be lost, for exmple.

"The key to efficient Christmas mailing," Mr. Moreland commented, is "to mail early and carefully. Clear addressing, with the ZIP Codes, proper packaging and early depositing can prevent most problems and provide the greatest value for money spent for postage."

Heaton Art On Exhibit

Bonnie Heaton, WTSU graduate student and Art 121 instructor, opened her art exhibit with a reception Sunday in the WTSU Fine Arts Lounge.

The collection will be on exhibit through November 13. Miss Heaton is showing approximately twenty-five works in oils, acrylics, watercolors, and graphics. Selected wall hangings and tapestries will also be shown.

The selected art works are priced to sell from 15 to $50. Miss Heaton hopes that the money from the art sale will help her take a trip to Europe next sumner.

News Brief

Mrs. Anton Handing and Mrs. A. J. Britten accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Britten and Michele to Dallas recently.

Mrs. Handing and Mrs. Britten were houseguests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Keesee, Jr., and Amy. Mrs. Keesee is Mrs. Handing's daughter.

The women also visited the Texas State Fair in Dallas while the Brittens attended a Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Film Series Opens At Methodist Church

The First United Methodist Church is hosting a film each Sunday night in November at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary with the public invited.

Sunday, "Alcohol is Dynamite," a color film depicting case histories of teen-age drinkers, was shown. It demonstrates that drinking can become habit-forming before the victim realizes it.

November 8 "Listen, Listen," a vocations related film, will be shown.

On November 15 "Syzgy", a symbolic film concerning three areas of conflict, will be presented.

"Skippy and the Fourth R" will be shown on November 22. The movie shows how home and church work together for the Christian growth of children.

On November 29 "Where Fortune Smiles" will be shown, ending the church sponsored series. The movie is about how gambling in many forms, even T. V. contests, may affect various personalities.

Howell Attends Church Meet

Miss Mattie Sue Howell, director of Christian Education at the First United Methodist Church, is one of 800 Christian educators participating in a four-day "living-learning experience" in San Franccisco, Wednesday through Saturday.

The national conference, being sponsored by the Christian Educators Fellowship (CEF) of the United Methodist Church, will also include participants from other Protestant denominations as well as the American Jewis Education Committee and the Roman Catholic Community of Religious Education Directors.

The theme for the meeting will be "You Are Responsible, Say Yes!" and will be held in the San Francisco Sheraton Palace Hotel.

Posse Has Canyon Trail Ride

The Randall County Sheriff's Posse held their annual Palo Duro Canyon Trail Ride last weekend which was co-sponsored by the Range Riders, and Amarillo and Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Jim Crawford of the Range Riders was chairman of the ride with Blaine Hufnagle of Canyon, co-chairman. The ride began at Friday noon and ended at noon Sunday.

Even though the cool weather was believed to have kept some local riders away thirty-seven area riders made the trip. Among the group were people from Muleshoe, Portales and parts of Oklahoma as well as Amarillo and Canyon.

J.C. Newton of Canyon preached the Sunday morning service in Palo Duro Canyon.

"We certainly appreciate the co-operation of the Park officials," sheriff's posse member Jimmy Plain stated.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it--and so do its readers.

Ag School Gets New Trim Table

Canyon High School Vocational Agriculture Department has a new trimming table which has enhanced the ease with which an animal's hooves may be manicured.

The table was invented and is marketed by Rex L. Siebert of Marion, Kan., one of the few professional cattle hoof trimmers in the tri-state area.

The table is equipped with straps, ropes and pulleys which secure the animal to the table while the trimming is being done.

"It reduces the chance for injury to the persons doing the trimming as well as to the animal," Jim Walker, vocational agriculture instructor explained.

Walker said the table cost $390 and will handle anything from a small calf to a 2500 pound bull. He noted that the ropes and straps hold the animal still while the work is being done.

He said it positions the feet where the hooves are more accessible. When an animal's hooves are trimmed from standing position the foot has to be bent in such a manner that hampers the trimmer in shaping the hoof properly, he went on.

On the new trimming table, the feet stick over the side and are readily accessible.

If cow or bull's hooves are not trimmed, the hoof eventually is deformed and pressures are created in the leg which lead to joint ailments, walker reported.

He said calves are now being trimmed for the January show. The hooves will be finished in January with fine sand paper.

Siebert was here this week trimming herds for Walter Graham and Richmond Hales. Walker said trimming charges for show cattle runs from $10 to $20 a head. Trimming range cattle is much cheaper.

Ponderesa Re-Zoning Hearing Set

G. C. Rainwater, Amarillo developer, told the Planning and Zoning Commission Monday night that he plans to build a series of apartments totaling 400 units if Ponderosa Addition is rezoned to allow it.

Rainwater appeared before the commission to ask that Ponderosa Addition be changed from single family zoning to multi-family.

He submitted a plat of a 20-acre tract at the south edge of the city bordering on US 87 to the west.

Several persons from Ponderosa have taken exception to the proposal and a half dozen of them attended the commission meeting.

The commission set Dec. 7 as the date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. in the Canyon Community Center.

ROTC Units To Visit University

West Texas State University Reserve Officer Training Corps will be host Friday to members of the Texas Tech ROTC staff and members of the Amarillo Tascosa and Palo Duro High School junior ROTC units.

The affair will be under sponsorship of the cadet brigade staff.

A representative of Panhandle State's ROTC will also attend.

Purpose of the conference is to promote interest in ROTC at the college level. It will also serve as a tool for cadet leaders to improve their local ROTC programs.

The cadet Brigade from WTSU will visit the Texas Tech campus Nov. 13.

Navy Lieutenant Commander James F. Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Owens of 404 Holman Lane, has reported for duty with Patrol Squadron Seventeen, Naval Air Station, Barbers Point, Hawaii.

Canyon Band Parents Discuss Year's Plans

The Canyon Band Parents met in the Canyon Junior High School Auditorium Monday night to hear the eighth and ninth grade bands and discuss the year's plans.

Doug Rittenberry, president, introduced the band-parents' officers and called for a treasurer's report which included monies raised from the annual calendar drive and Homecoming spaghetti supper.

The CHS band has recently begun to furnish cokes for visiting teams' band members during halftime of home football games.

Plans for the annual Canyon News subscription drive held in the spring were announced. A candy sale will also be held this year.

Every two years the money raised by the band's projects is used to take members on a major contest trip.

It was also announced that the band parents would underwrite the producing of a sound and color film of the UIL marching competition as they have done in the past.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the CHS bass drum needs to have an Eagle and Canyon imprinted on it.

Three Canyon children at the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center are Chris Pogue, age 6; Hollie Jones, age 7; and Jay Duncan, age 6. The children are currently enrolled in the center's deaf education classes.

Canyon Children Study At Hearing Center

Three Canyon children are currently in regular attendance in the deaf education classes at the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center.

The three are Chris Pogue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Pogue, who reside east of Canyon; Jay Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Duncan; and Hollie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary R. Jones.

The Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center was organized in 1959 for the purpose of oral training for the deaf and for providing diagnostic and therapeutic services for language disorders.

The center is supported by the Amarillo Public Schools, the United Good Neighbors of Amarillo, and contributions and memorial gifts from individuals, corporations, and foundations.

S. S. Stephens is director of the Speech and Hearing Center at 3108 S. Fillmore in Amarillo.

Henson, Hammond Elected To Boards

Two Canyon men were elected to boards of a Texas Baptist agency and to an institution during the annual meeting of the 1.8 million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas held in Austin last week.

Virgil B. Henson, vice president of Finance, West Texas State University, was elected as trustee for the Baptist Standard of Dallas.

John L. Hammond, stock farmer, was re-elected trustee for Buckner Benevolences, Dallas.

Both are members of the First Baptist Church of Canyon.

News Brief

Mrs. Kermit B. Lawson, president of the Top of Texas District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, spoke at the Canyon Federation Dinner Monday night.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it–and so do its readers.

New sewer and water lines were going in at the Chaparral Addition at the south outskirts of Canyon this week. Workmen are shown here ditching for the lines.

A $32,700 tour bus was recently donated to the Faith Student Chapel by friends of the chapel. Reverand Marcus Adair with members of the Board of Trustees, dedicated the bus Saturday. The new bus will be used partly for choir tours.

the children at 1:00 p.m. and children can fish for prizes for 10 cents.

A dance will be held at the Parish Hall at 9:00 p.m.

The Sausage Festival is totally a community effort. Six weeks ago a committee of 25 women and 4 men chopped some 1,400 pounds of cabbage and seasoned it for kraut.

Today another sizeable committee chopped and seasoned around 2,000 pounds of meat for the homemade German sausage.

Harlen Fry, of the Easter community, has donated the cabbage for the past five or six years and the beef and pork is donated by the area farmers and church members.

In 1968 2,800 paid admissions were sold and last year the sales climbed to 3,030.

"That's not counting the little ones that eat free," Hartman pointed out.

The workers admit that they "don't think people would let us quit havin' the festival if we wanted to."

The funds raised at the festival each year goes into the Parish fund. Over the past few years the church mortgage has been retired.

The money made at this festival will help pay expenses for the recent Parish remodeling.

Part of the funds each year are used to purchase new equipment to aid workers in making the kraut and sausage.

WT Team In MVC Track Convention

West Texas State University's cross country team competes Saturday in the Missouri Valley Conference meet over a four-mile course at the Echo Hills Golf Course in Wichita, Kan.

The Buffalo harriers become the first university team to compete for an MVC title since the school was taken into the conference this past summer.

Wichita coach Herm Wilson is hosting the meet for the 11th time in the 14-year history of Missouri Valley Conference cross country.

The defending individual champion is Lynn Lee of Drake. Wichita, Drake and Memphis State will be the stronger teams entered.

Coach Bob Kitchens of West Texas will take a five-man team to the event. His top runner this fall has been sophomore Jim Hogan from Buffalo, N.Y.

Other Buffalo entries are Butch Middleton, Harvey Hudspeth, Robert Malphurs and Percy Mays. Middleton, Malphurs and Mays are freshmen and Hudspeth is a junior college transfer in his junior year.

The Buffs placed second Saturay to powerful Eastern New Mexico University in the ENMU Invitational. New Mexico State was third and Wayland fourth. Hogan was the highest finishing Buffalo with a fifth. He ran the four-mile course in 21:33.

fullback Roger Lawson and 218-pound halfback Bob Ezelle. The Broncos average 238 pounds per man across their defensive line and 222 pounds per man on their offensive interior line.

Lawson leads the ground game with 854 rushing yards, and is averaging 6.5 yards per carry. Ezelle, who has been injured this season in early games, has 315 yards, but is averaging 6.8 yards per carry.

Western Michigan had 88 rushing attempts against Marshall and that leads the nation for a single game this season. The Broncos set a school record for total offense last week with 592 yards against Ohio.

Quarterback Ted Grignon, who led the Broncos last year as the Buffs took a 28-20 win at Western Michigan, has completed 47 of 96 passes for 752 yards and eight touchdowns.

Lighting Is Talked At Meeting

Canyon Chamber of Commerce board Monday night decided to go as far this year as possible toward Christmas lighting for the community.

President Eddie Knowles said a goal for a Christmas lighting fund would be announced later this week.

In charge is the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Roland Black, Chamber manager, announced that ballots will be sent out this week for election of four directors for the coming year.

Retiring directors include Bernard Warren, Don Max Vars, Dick Dawdy and Dean House.

District 16 Officers Elected

Curtis H. Nixon, Assistant Director of Field Operations for the Texas State Teachers Association, spoke to the TSTA Randall County Unit Tuesday in the WTSU Activities Center.

Mr. Nixon spoke on the "Proposed Legislative Program of the Texas State Teacher's Association.

Robert Campbell of Claude was elected president of TSTA District 16. Other officers were Joel Evans of Amarillo, vice president; Shelly Davis of Canyon, recording secretary; Liz Dawson of Borger, financial secretary; Jean Foster of Hart, historian; and Jerry Urbanzich of White Deer, parliamentarian.

Dave Corley of Canyon conducted one of the workshops at the session.

mas Rick Edmondson had one of the best nights of his running career. He led ground gain with 124 yards in 20 carries.

Coach Goode said the team is in good health, except for Gunter.

"It will be difficult for them to get up and of good momentum for the Perryton game after the loss to Dumas," Goode said. "That is what we're going to be working on this week."

for ministerial students.

The construction project is to be financed by "participating friends" of the Apostolic Outreach, according to the minister. Such sponsors recently donated a $32,700 bus for the center's use.

Rev. Adair said the buildings would be constructed on center-owned land adjacent the WTSU campus, to "facilitate usage by the students."

Members of the foods committee are Mrs. Gordon Foster, Mrs. Dean Donnell, and Mrs. Watkins.

Arrangements for the speaker and program were made by Connie Brazzil, Linda Hales, and Mrs. Jones Hales.

Teresa Butler of Lubbock will receive a Santa Fe Educational Award from R. I. Cross, Railway representative. Miss Butler will attend WTSU next year.

Annex Repair Is Discussed

Commissioners court spent most of its time Monday discussing proposed repairs for the court house annex in South Amarillo.

The court recently let bids for paving and resurfacing the parking area around the court house.

The annex was built in 1956. W. A. "Bill" Wilson, who is in charge of court house maintenance, said settling of the foundation has caused cracks in the annex wall "you can see daylight through."

He also told the court that some tile work is needed on the floors which he said are breaking up. "The building is in a heck of a shape," he declared.

The court also discussed its contract with Datamedia Corporation, the firm which supplied the county with electronic voting machines.

Commissioners passed an election order and named alternate election judges.

Commissioner Glenn Dowlen took exception to the fact that members of the court were not given prior notice of those named by Judge Carroll Brown.

"I don't have any objections," said Dowlen, "but we weren't notified in time to do anything about it if we didn't like it."

The county received a $1,101 rebate from Blackwell Insurance Agency on the county's workman compensation insurance.

In other business, the court tabled until next week discussion of a compressor unit bought by Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston for the court house annex housing the jail and sheriff's office.

High Schools Join In Doubleheaders

High school teams from Canyon, Dumas, Hereford and Phillips will join the West Texas State Buffaloes in doubleheader basketball games at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum this season.

Dumas and Phillips will have the distinction of being the first high schools to play in the coliseum when they meet Dec. 10 as a prelude to the West Texas State-Eastern New Mexico contest. It is the home opener for the Buffaloes.

The Demons are coached by Jim Reid and Phillips is directed by Bob Moore. Reid is a former Buffalo cager.

On Dec. 30 the Canyon Eagles of coach B. B. Kendrick and the Hereford Whitefaces of coach Ron Mayberry meet prior to the West Texas-Colorado State game.

The first game will start at 5:30 p.m., with the Buffalo games to begin at 7:30 p.m.

WTSU coach Dennis Walling said three other dates are available for boys or girls high school teams who would like to play at the coliseum prior to the West Texas State games.

The dates are Jan. 4, when the Buffs entertain Texas-Arlington; Jan. 14, when New Mexico State is here; and Feb. 8, when Seattle University comes to the coliseum.

Walling said Pampa coach Robert McPherson indicated he would like to play a Class AAAA or AAA team on the Jan. 14 date.

WTSU Eyes Vet Branch

West Texas State University could wind up with a branch of the Texas A&M veterinarian school in the form of a teaching clinic.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, head of the WTSU School of Agriculture, said such a branch is to be established somewhere in West Texas and WTSU is hoping to get it established here.

A diagnostic clinic out of A&M is being established at Bushland.

Dr. Smallwood and Pat Malone, agricultural representative of Amarillo First National Bank, is helping A&M collect data showing the need for the branch. Texas A&M officials have not made a decision as to where the school branch will be established.

Dr. Smallwood said West Texas State is ready to make cooperative agreements if the decision is made to place the branch at WTSU.

Don't feed the animals at the Umbarger Sausage Festival Sunday, they're stuffed already. Mrs. Bernard Hartman and Mrs. Conrad Westhoff show some of the cute animals that come in all shapes, sizes, and prices. Items at the Country Store and Bazaar will range in price from 50 and 75 cents to $5. Women in the Umbarger community work all year on the gift items.

Democrat Lloyd Bentsen in the race for the US Senate by a majority of 8,434 to 5,558.

Both Smith and Bentsen went on to win their respective elections in statewide balloting.

On the amendments the county approved proposition 1, 9,055 to 2,955; Proposition 2, was 6,714 for and 7,120 against; Proposition 3 was 6,144 for and 6,846 against; Proposition 4 was 5,928 for and 5,882 against; Proposition 5 was 7,071 for and 5,259 against; Proposition 6 was 8,503 for and 3,888 against; and Proposition 7 was 6,018 for and 5,768 against.
